Ice Viognier

Horse Heaven Hills

These Viognier grapes were left on the vine to hang weeks past the normal harvest time causing severe shrivel and dehydrations, increasing concentrated flavors and aromas when temperatures fell to 17 F. and finally picked in the pre-dawn hours of November 24, 2010 at 40 brix residual sugar. The grapes were hand harvested and pressed while still frozen. This wonderfully balanced ice wine shows complex aromas of honey comb, orange peel, peach skin and hints of spice. Intensely sweet with luscious flavors of rich honey, ripe nectarine, cinnamon, and nuances of spice, all add complexity while nicely integrated in texture and balance. A judicious amount of acidity and viscosity builds structure and imagination in the very long, fleshy finish.
