

Alexandria Nicole Cellars

2014 Counoise

This estate grown gem is a rare look into a Rhone varietal that is not widely produced in Washington State. This is one of our smaller releases that goes entirely to our wine club members. Counoise is a spicy beast and can dominate any blend it is utilized in, with aromatic, notes of dried Herbs and black pepper, black currants, blueberries, and a touch of toasted pine nuts. The light use of French oak barrels creates a harmonious layer of tannins to help temper the heavy spice on the front palate at first sip. Medium in body, the bright acidity keeps the balance of bold aromatics match up to dramatic and long lasting finish allowing this Counoise to drink well now or through 2020.

ABOUT ALEXANDRIA NICOLE CELLARS

Founders Jarrod and Ali Boyle are dedicated to producing small lots of hand-crafted wine from our own Destiny Ridge Estate Vineyard. Through attentive viticulture management, balanced crop levels, gentle hand-harvesting and processing of grapes, and passionate winemaking, we produce consistent quality in every bottle. Located in the Horse Heaven Hills, our 327-acre estate vineyard is located high on the bluffs overlooking the majestic Columbia River. It is here, high on the dominate ridge, that our grapes thrive in these unique soils. It is here that our winemaker Jarrod nurtures the fruit quality from bud to bottle. Our belief is that quality starts in the vineyard.
