“Alderdale” Cabernet Sauvignon Heaven Hills

Carefully selected, blended, and barrel aged for 24 months this Estate Grown Cabernet Sauvignon is clean and youthful, with an alluring combination of black currant and bright red fruits dominating the highly perfumed nose. The dense bouquet is absolutely loaded and is further lifted by heady scents of lavender and violets, sweet spice, coffee bean, and cedar. In the mouth, it immediately attacks with super concentrated dark fruit flavors, fleshy plum, mocha, ripe black cherry and hints of nutmeg and clove. The wine is dry but has a juicy freshness supported by savory earth characteristics that are pushed into the background displaying its true new world roots. There's noteworthy intensity and focus to the mid-palate, before the structure really amps up in the finish. With outstanding length and pervasive minerality, there is no shortage of potential with the 2010. Give it a long decant if drinking before 2014 or with proper cellaring, it will show its whole spectrum of flavors.
