This appealing, southern Rhône blend is Châteauneuf-du-Pape in style, with lush, bright red fruits and pleasing traces of the estate vineyard's characteristic dusty tannins. Exhibiting a deep crimson color with a stunning violet rim, this wine produces a spicy nose of black cherry, rhubarb, mocha, cedar and lavender. While Mourvedre contributes elegance, structure and lively acidity to the blend – producing flavors of raspberry, smoked almond, wild vine strawberry and hints of tobacco – the Grenache adds a beautiful peppery note. Syrah rounds out the blend with its dark fruit flavors, and adds steady tannins and color to this supple sipper. Try pairing this wine with a rack of lamb and caramelized shallots, or grilled pork tenderloin with a blackberry compote.
