

Alexandria Nicole Cellars
2016 "Affinity" Albariño

A light golden glow in color, the tropical bouquet of fresh cut tangerine, lemon zest, and hints of citrus and spice, lift effortlessly from the glass. The palate is bright and lively, giving it a harmonic balance between the 2016 Albariño's focused acidity and its refreshing tropical side. The crisp and clean flavors, flourish with notes of pineapple, lilac, mango and lime that run throughout the mouth and into the long juicy finish. This is an excellent wine to finish out a warm summer afternoon or to pair with the flavors of the Northwest. So if it's ever sported a fin or a shell, you won't go wrong. Try with Sushi and Sashimi, fresh Oysters on the half shell or simply throw some Halibut or Sea bass on the grill.
